

HAREWOOD END TO HOARWITHY LOOP WALK

An easy 4.5 mile walk of paths, tracks and quiet country lanes with only a few stiles. Take in the interesting Italianate church at Hoarwithy.

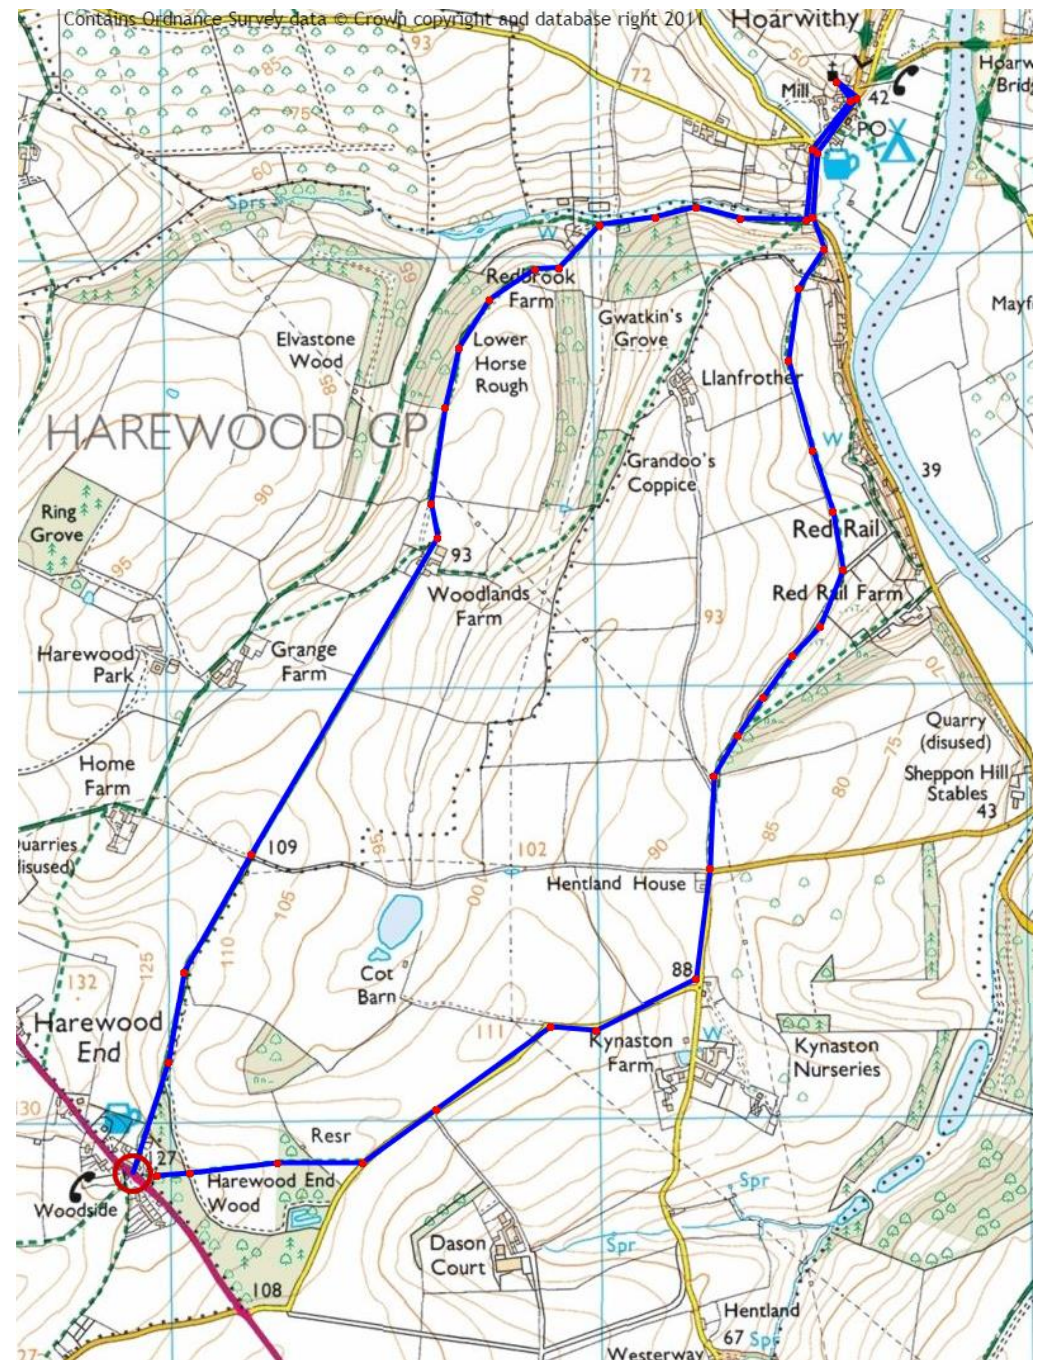

Starting at the Harewood End Inn on the A49 (accessible by bus 33 from Ross-on-Wye) take the bridle path alongside the pub. After passing a couple of garages it becomes a sunken tree lined path until you emerge from the trees through a gate and pick up a farm track in the same direction towards Woodlands Farm. Walk between the farm buildings (ignoring the path to the right) and pick up the path after a gate. Follow the track along the edge of the field through another gate. Keep the fence on your left and walk down the hill towards Redbrook Farm emerging onto the farm access road. Turn right and walk down to the Hoarwithy road. Remember this point for the return journey.

Follow the road down the hill to Hoarwithy and take some time to explore the fine church. Retrace your steps back up the road to where you joined it earlier.

Take the left-hand track that runs parallel with the road, passing a cottage and over a stile into a meadow. Follow the path keeping to the right of the meadow until you pass through a kissing gate, cross a farm track and through another kissing gate. Keep to the top of the field and pass through yet another kissing gate. Pick up a bridle path that joins a farm track coming in on your right and walk down to the road.

Turn right and follow the road for three quarters of a mile until you see a marked path and stile to your right, just before a small wood. Over the stile and into a field, walk around the left-hand edge until you come to another stile. The path then goes through a small grove of young trees before emerging out onto another field. Pick out the path across the crops in the same direction as the woodland path and pass through another small wood and then you emerge on the A49 about 100 yards from the Harewood End Inn.
